COLOR MATCH: The Meklon refinish factory is renowned for its precise color matching techniques, ensuring that our BMW Series Havana Gray car paint is perfectly matched to the original BMW paint color. We strive to provide the same appearance as the original car paint color, so that the repaired area is consistent with the surrounding bodywork, showing a repair effect with no visible marks.

HIGH-QUALITY COATING: Our BMW Series Havana Gray car paint is a high-quality formula with excellent color saturation and gloss. We use advanced techniques and materials to ensure that the restored coating is durable, fade-resistant, and able to resist the scratches and scuffs of everyday use.

EASY REPAIR PROCESS: Meklon's BMW Series Havana Gray car paint features an easy refinish process that is easy to pick up even for non-professionals. We provide detailed repair guides and supporting tools to help users complete repair work easily. Whether it's a small scratch or a larger repair, our refinish products provide a convenient and efficient solution.

Versatile application: In addition to repairing scratches and scuffs, Meklon's BMW Series Havana Gray car paint can also be used for personalisation. If owners want to add a unique look to their BMW vehicles, our refinish paints can also be used to paint details to create a distinctive effect that expresses individuality and taste.
