Product Description

Product Introduction:

1. Color gloss

The 1K lemon yellow car repair paint we produce presents a bright and vivid lemon yellow hue, which is pure and full in color and can accurately match the original lemon yellow color matching requirements on various types of cars. In terms of gloss, it has an excellent high gloss effect. After spraying, the repaired part can be perfectly integrated with the original paint surface of the vehicle, forming a smooth, uniform and textured surface. It can reflect dazzling light in the sun, greatly improving the overall beauty of the vehicle's appearance.

2. Quality

The quality of this repair paint has been strictly controlled and tested. It is carefully formulated with high-quality raw materials and has excellent adhesion. It can firmly adhere to the surface of the car body to ensure that the repaired paint surface is not easy to fall off, peel or fade. At the same time, it has good weather resistance. Whether facing harsh external environmental conditions such as scorching sun, wind and rain, or temperature changes, it can maintain the integrity and color stability of the paint surface for a long time, effectively extending the service life of the repair effect.

3. Leveling

1K lemon yellow car repair paint has excellent leveling. During the painting process, the paint can flow and spread quickly and evenly on the surface of the car body, automatically filling in the tiny flaws and unevenness on the surface to form a smooth paint film. This feature not only makes the appearance of the repaired paint more perfect, but also reduces the quality problems such as orange peel phenomenon caused by poor leveling, greatly improving the efficiency and quality of the repair work.

4. Painting difficulty

For the difficulty of painting, our 1K lemon yellow repair paint is specially designed to reduce the difficulty of operation as much as possible. Its formula is easy to master, and the atomization effect during painting is good, which can evenly cover the repair area. Whether it is an experienced professional painter or a novice who has received some training, it can be operated relatively easily to achieve the ideal repair effect. At the same time, we also provide detailed painting operation guides and technical support to help users better complete the painting work.

5. Shelf life

This product has a shelf life of up to 48 months if it is unopened (the specific time can be filled in according to the actual setting). During the shelf life, as long as it is stored in accordance with the specified storage conditions, the performance indicators of the repair paint can remain stable, ensuring that users can obtain reliable product quality assurance when needed.

6. Storage conditions

In order to ensure the quality and performance of 1K lemon yellow car repair paint, its storage conditions are relatively simple and easy to achieve. The product should be stored in a cool, dry, well-ventilated indoor environment, avoiding direct sunlight and high temperature environment. The ideal storage temperature range is recommended to be between [specific temperature range]. At the same time, ensure that the storage place is away from fire, heat sources and other substances that may produce chemical reactions to prevent the product from being contaminated or deteriorating.

Including detailed product instructions, painting operation guides, FAQs and other materials, and can arrange professional technicians for on-site training or online guidance according to the needs of dealers. This helps dealers and their downstream customers better understand the use of the product, reduce product quality problems caused by improper operation, improve customer satisfaction, and also enhance the cooperation stickiness between dealers and us.

4. Profit space guarantee

In the wholesale sales link, we provide dealers with a reasonable and attractive price system to ensure that dealers have enough profit space in the sales process. Through a reasonable pricing strategy, dealers can maintain their price advantage in the market competition and achieve considerable profit returns, which will motivate dealers to actively promote and sell our 1K lemon yellow car repair paint products.

5. Brand influence and market promotion

As a well-known car paint manufacturer, we have a certain brand influence and market visibility. By cooperating with us, dealers can quickly open up the local market with the help of our brand advantages and enhance their image and status in the field of car repair paint. In addition, we will also regularly carry out marketing activities, such as participating in industry exhibitions and holding product promotion meetings. In these activities, dealers will have the opportunity to participate in them, further expand their network resources and market influence in the industry, and lay a solid foundation for their business development.

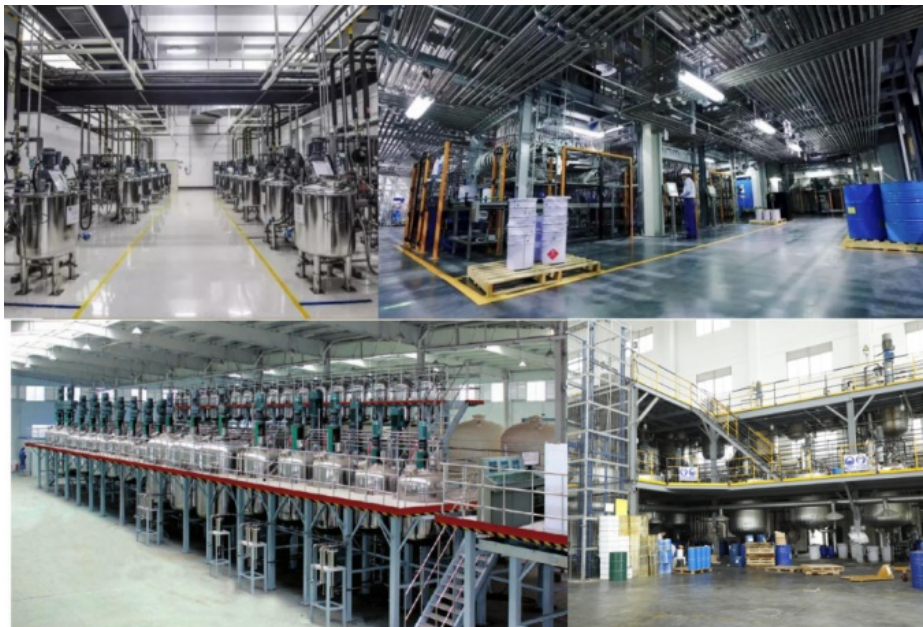

In summary, the 1K lemon yellow car repair paint we produce can provide strong support for dealers in the market competition with its excellent product characteristics. At the same time, the many cooperation advantages we provide to dealers will also promote win-win development for both parties. We sincerely welcome dealers to work with us to jointly explore the broad prospects of the car repair paint market.
