Product Description

Volkswagen's 7DW silver is one of the most recognizable and classic colors in Volkswagen models. With superb professional knowledge and years of practical experience, Meklon's engineering team has conducted in-depth research on the color formula and performance standards of Volkswagen's original paint. After countless blending, testing and optimization, they finally reproduced a highly restored 7DW silver car paint. This silver paint has a delicate and uniform metallic texture. Under the light, the paint surface flashes a smart and layered light, perfectly presenting the elegance and technological sense of Volkswagen. Not only that, the high-quality raw materials and advanced production technology it uses give it excellent weather resistance, wear resistance and corrosion resistance. Even in harsh environmental conditions, it can maintain its bright color for a long time, providing a solid protective barrier for your car.

In addition to this stunning Volkswagen 7DW silver car paint, we have also built a huge product matrix of all models and colors, covering classic colors of mainstream brands, customized colors of niche models, and one-stop supply of supporting auxiliary materials such as eye filler, to meet the diverse needs of customers, so that you can provide customers with a full-link car paint solution without running around.

Our professional mixing formula app is a great winning magic weapon. Dealer partners can use it for free. It can quickly match car models and accurately output mixing solutions to help end customers reduce trial and error costs and improve construction efficiency. This not only enhances customer stickiness, but also allows you to establish a professional and reliable brand image in the local market and stand out easily.

By working with us, you will enjoy a highly competitive price system, sufficient supply guarantee and timely logistics delivery.

At the same time, we also provide comprehensive technical support and market training to help you quickly master product advantages and sales skills. Joining us means walking with quality, advancing with innovation, and sharing the unlimited business opportunities in the car paint market! Looking forward to working with you to win the future together!
