Product Description

Manufacturers Sell Acrylic Car Paint That Is Wear-resistant And Scratch Resistant

Package, Storage, and Transportation

Our car paint is available in two packaging options: 200 kg/barrel or 25 kg/barrel, providing flexibility based on your specific needs. To ensure the longevity and quality of the paint, it is essential to follow proper storage and transportation guidelines.

Storage Period: Our car paint has a recommended storage period of approximately 12 months when stored in closed containers. It is crucial to keep the containers in a shady and dry place to prevent exposure to direct sunlight and moisture, which can affect the paint's performance.
