Product Description

Meklon: Your One-Stop Global Automotive Paint Supply Chain Solution

Meklon deeply understands that as a wholesaler and distributor, the breadth and depth of product categories are the core to winning the market. We are committed to becoming your most reliable partner for expanding the automotive paint category. Through a global and digital supply chain platform, we provide you with a full range, full brand, and full scenario automotive paint product matrix, allowing you to meet the diverse needs of end customers without having to connect with multiple suppliers.

1, Full category coverage: meet the painting needs of every layer

The Meklon platform aggregates global high-quality manufacturer resources to provide you with a complete product line covering the entire process of automotive repair, paint, and industrial coating:

Basic protective layer: Provides various high-performance primers (epoxy primer, phosphating primer, intermediate coat paint, etc.) to ensure excellent adhesion, rust resistance, and filling properties.

Core color layer: With a vast selection of topcoats, covering all mainstream effects such as solid paint, metallic paint, pearl paint, matte paint, etc., and supporting quick color search and formula matching.

Ultimate protective layer: Provides a variety of clear paints (gloss coats), including products with different characteristics such as high gloss, high wear resistance, and UV resistance, to provide long-lasting protection for the paint surface.

2, Full scenario application: Accurately matching diverse market demands

Our product library is finely divided according to terminal application scenarios to help you accurately serve different customers:

Automotive aftermarket repair market: providing a complete set of small repairs, major repairs, and vehicle spray coating product systems.

Commercial vehicles and fleet services: providing professional coating solutions suitable for buses, trucks, and logistics vehicles.

Automotive OEM support: Connect top coating suppliers with OEM qualifications.

Personalization and modification market: Bringing together characteristic color masterbatches, special effects paints, and customized color matching solutions.
